MOLECULAR HYDROGEN

Molecular hydrogen, often represented as H₂, is the diatomic molecule composed of two hydrogen atoms bonded together. It is the simplest and most abundant molecule in the universe. In its molecular form, hydrogen exists as a colourless, odourless, and tasteless gas at standard temperature and pressure.

ANTI-INFLAMMATORY EFFECT

H₂ demonstrates anti-inflammatory properties by modulating various signalling pathways and pro-inflammatory mediators. It can suppress the production of pro-inflammatory cytokines and molecules. This anti-inflammatory action helps mitigate excessive immune responses and inflammation-driven tissue damage.

ANTIOXIDANT-LIKE EFFECTS

Molecular hydrogen exhibits antioxidant-like properties via its cell modulation effects, making it superior to conventional antioxidants. It has the ability to regulate the antioxidant system of the cell, preventing oxidative stress from occurring and reducing it when it is present.

MITOCHONDRIAL FUNCTION

Molecular hydrogen can target and positively influence mitochondrial function. This includes improving mitochondrial respiration, reducing oxidative stress within these organelles, and optimizing adenosine triphosphate (ATP) production. Enhanced mitochondrial health can translate into improved energy metabolism and cellular vitality.

MICROBIOTA MODULATION

H₂ may influence the gut microbiota composition, promoting the growth of beneficial bacteria while inhibiting harmful pathogens. This modulation of the gut microbiome can have far-reaching implications for overall health, including immune function and metabolic balance.

SUMMARISED BENEFITS OF HYDROGEN

- selective antioxidant-like effects
- anti-allergic effects
- anti-inflammatory effects
- anti-cellular death effects
- anti-aging effects
- support the immune system
- increases the cellular metabolism
- improves the body's antioxidants
- anti-diabetic effects
- anti-cancer effects
- improves cognitive function
- protects DNA and RNA
- increases energy or ATP production
- protects from radiation
- protects mitochondria
- increases mitochondria biogenesis

THE CELLPOWER BOTTLE - MOLECULAR HYDROGEN GENERATOR

LUMIVITAE

A VISIONARY CREATION

The CellPower Hydrogen Water bottle is a visionary creation, meticulously designed by the innovative mind of a Portuguese scientist and frequency medicine expert Nuno Nina, who boasts extensive experience in the field of Integrative Medicine, having guided over 70,000 clients throughout his clinical practice. With a background in Mathematics, Systems Engineering, and Biochemistry, Nuno Nina meticulously crafted every detail of this unique piece of technology, from design and material selection to the development of electrical circuits and frequencies.

MUCH MORE THAN A WATER BOTTLE

The CellPower is a piece of technology poised to transform the way you think and consume water. Utilizing its groundbreaking technology, CellPower generates the purest hydrogen-rich water, delivering a range of potential health benefits supported by research. Moreover, it features three distinct sets of frequencies beaming from above to infuse your water, such as replicating the invigorating and life-giving frequencies of the sun, as well as intricately calibrated magnets in the base mimicking the magnetic field of the Earth's core. The vessel holds independent health certifications.

A ONE-OF-A-KIND EARNING OPPORTUNITY

You can join LumiVitae as an affiliate. There is no charge for this. You will receive your own affiliate link, and every time someone purchases the vessel using your link, you will earn 100 EUR. I have years of experience in affiliate marketing, but I have never come across such a generous commission. Neither have I been a part of such a powerful and supportive network, including doctors, scientists, or mind-body-spirit teachers featuring on personal growth platforms such as Mindvalley.
