

Customer vs. Brand Partner Options

You have two options to get your patches: As a Customer, or a Brand Partner.
(You can switch from one status to another in the future, if you wish.)

Compare these 2 options and see what resonates with you more.

Option 1: Order as a Customer

If you are not interested in building a business at this time, you can order as a Preferred Customer or Preferred Plus Customer. Both options give you access to wholesale pricing.

Preferred Customer (PC):

- ~ If you'd like to get the patches at wholesale price
- ~ If you have no interest in referring others or earning rewards

Preferred Plus Customer (PC+) - RECOMMENDED

- ~ If you'd like to receive free monthly samples for a yearly membership fee of just $25.
- ~ If you'd like to earn a $100 credit every time you refer 3 customers

Preferred Customer Plus (PC+)

X39 activates and rejuvenates the body's own stem cells. Increases the copper peptide GHK-CU. Increases energy and improves sleep. Enhances cognitive ability. Speeds wound recovery. Eliminates scars and blemishes. Supports the immune system. Promotes the regeneration of blood vessels, organs, nerves, tissue, etc.

Option 2: Order as a Brand Partner

If you are interested in earning by sharing the patches and are willing to commit to a monthly autoship, this option is for you. It allows you to build long-term residual income while helping others improve their health and finances.

- Receive your own affiliate link
- Earn commissions when others order through you
- Build a long-term income stream

The Premium Pack offers the best overall value. Otherwise, starting with at least the Advanced Pack is the second-best choice, with the option to upgrade later.
